Holly Hagg Open Day: 10:30am - 4pm - Meet the alpacas, go pond dipping, make a scarecrow and wander round our community vegetable beds and fruit trees. Feel free to bring a picnic. There will be handmade crafts on sale, spinning demonstrations and you can have a go at spinning alpaca fleece into yarn using a drop spindle. £1 entrance fee for adults, 50p children aged 3 to 16. Alpaca feeding £1. Scarecrow making £2.50. Refreshments and crafts on sale. No charge for pond dipping; we have some nets available or bring your own. All proceeds go towards our work in bringing people and nature together and teaching sustainable organic food growing. Sorry no dogs. Holly Hagg is on Long Lane, off Stephen Hill/Back Lane (Crosspool end of Bole Hill Road) nr S10 5PY.

Treasure Hunt, Scout HQ on Benty Lane, Join 36th SHEFFIELD Beavers on a Treasure Hunt around Crosspool. For children up to 8 accompanied by an adult. Older children are welcome too. Collect maps 6.00pm - 6.30pm. Gather clues & return by 7.15pm to collect your "Treasure". £3 per family or £1.50 if any of the children are wearing any Scouting/Guiding Uniform or necker. Refreshments available until 7.30pm.

History Walk: Meet at Lydgate Lane park gates. Led by Jan Millward, looking at places of interest and some of the people who lived and worked around Crosspool in times gone by. Featuring Queen Victoria's scissor maker, the liquorice allsort story, a US president, two professors, a National Treasure and lots, lots more! The walk will take about 1.5 hours and will finish at the Plough on Sandygate Road.

Fun Run: Tapton/King Edward VII school field 3:30 - 4:00pm Open to all Crosspool children up to 11, with races for Mums & Dads. Entry forms available from Lydgate Junior School.

Alien invaders: New invasive invertebrates in Sheffield. Local man, Paul Richards who works at the Wildlife Trust describes the recent arrival of aliens into Sheffield gardens. A host of new invertebrates to the Sheffield area have made their home in our backyard, perhaps without you even noticing. Do they come in peace? How can we recognise them and what should we do about them? This is natural history, but not as we know it. A talk of equal interest to sci fi enthusiasts and gardeners alike!

Photo Exhibition of all entries: 1:30pm - 4:30pm St Columba's church Take a look at all the entries of this year's competition on display. This year three groups of people were invited to send in photos on the subject of 'WILD'. Under 11s, under 18s and adults. The winners will be announced at 4pm. Coffee, tea and biscuits served while you enjoy looking around.

Acoustic Night Open Mic Special nest: 7:30pm A special one-off open mic edition of nest's regular acoustic night. Turn up and put your name down to play a couple of songs - unplugged and with no microphone - to a friendly festival crowd. Refreshments, including bottles of local ale, wine and Sheffield-roasted coffee, will be on sale. Free entry.

Summer Fayre: Great day out for all the family. Bouncy castle, music, beat the goalie, Phil's great burgers, ice creams, cakes, afternoon teas and coffees, book stall, crafts and more. This year you will also have the chance to meet the Alpacas from Holly Hagg!

BFG Film & Activity: Tapton Hill Cong. Church 10.30am- 12.30pm A morning for 5 - 11 year olds. Come and watch the BFG on our big screen with some popcorn. Beforehand you can create your own dream jars, FG ears and make snozzcumber sweets. Cost £3 towards the Festival charities.

Bird Walk: 10am Join the group led by Neil Fawson, RSPB local group member for a 1-2 hour walk to see the birds of Crosspool. No fee but small donations to RSPB Sheffield Local Group accepted.

Picnic Service in the Park: 12:30 - 1:30pm Lydgate Green Churches Together in Hallam invite you to a service with Loxley Silver band on Lydgate Green to mark the closing of the Festival. Bring your own picnic for after! In the event of bad weather the service will take place at St. Columba's.

All proceeds from this year's festival will go to the Lord Mayor's charities which are Sheffield Dementia Alliance, Vascular Dementia Charity, Artworks, Renal Unit at NGH and Sheffield RNIB.

Thank you to everyone that helps the festival run so smoothly in particular Kathryn at Flower Design in Crosspool.

Festival updates, details and reminders are available on the Crosspool Forum website and the Crosspool Forum Facebook page.
