

A Chance to Meet Hero Support Dogs in Training

An evening of folk music in aid of support dogs for people with Autism, Epilepsy, Dementia,

Live music from 'Tunes Tails and Taps', a group of folk musicians playing fiddle, guitar, spoons, concertina, flute, and melodeon; along with clog dancing recitations and anecdotes, has been organised for one night only by the Sheffield based assistance dog charity "support dogs",

Thursday 20th September, Stephen Hill Methodist Church,
Benty Lane, Crosspool, Sheffield, S10 5PL

Doors Open 7pm

Music from 7.30 - 9.30

£5 Suggested Donation on the Door. Refreshments available
